

DEAR ECDO MEMBERS and ECDO FRIENDS!

A new year is just starting, allowing to put 2020 and its negative effects behind us. The entire ECDO board wishes you all have a great 2021!!!

Unfortunately, 2020 left us an unprecedented pandemic with wanton effect on health, economics and social behaviour that will need all our joint effort to cure. Nonetheless, some changes are irreversible and our resilience is necessary, together with our science (vaccine, pharmaceuticals, basic science), to make a better world. So...please make any effort to stay safe and help others! 2020 has also shown to us the important role science plays in our society and for our health and how valuable our efforts are.

Here we would like to update you with the ECDO activities.

ECDO is now officially affiliated to CDDpress

ECDO has agreed to be affiliated with the scientific journals by

Annual Meeting of ECDO Society

After careful consideration, we decided to postpone the ECDO meeting 2021.

Regretfully, we have to state that the effect of the pandemic is still rather high at the moment, which precludes the proper organization of the meeting this year. We very much hope to see you all at:
